

House Resolution No. 919

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably developed and maintained exemplary reputations for the excellence of their many pursuits; and

Whereas, Jeff L. White has attained considerable distinction as a volunteer firefighter who moved to Callaway County one year ago after several years of service to the Boone County Fire District; and

Whereas, Jeff White will receive honors and accolades on Saturday, March 13, 2004, when he is named as the 2003 Firefighter of the Year by the Central Callaway Fire Protection District at its annual banquet; and

Whereas, since moving to Callaway County, volunteer firefighter Jeff White has continued his longstanding practices of mentoring youth through the Boy Scouts of America program and the Fire Cadet program, and of raising funds for the needy by organizing an annual Haunted House in October; and

Whereas, Jeff White has assisted his colleagues in the Central Callaway Fire Protection District by developing an inventory system for each truck and storage compartment; working on numerous committees to develop Standard Operating Procedures guidelines, training regimens, and cost-effective procedures for truck and equipment purchases; and increasing good interagency relationships with such law enforcement agencies as the local Sheriff's office and the Missouri State Highway Patrol; and

Whereas, Jeff White is a Highway Patrol officer who serves that public safety organization as a firearms instructor, member of the SERT team, and airplane pilot:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jeff White as the Central Callaway Fire Protection District Firefighter of the Year, to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt commendation of his diverse public safety achievements, and to express our best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jeff White.
